

Field Required
Personal Information	Dr. Ishtiaq Ahmad Bajwa Assistant Professor Department of Banking & Finance College of Business Administration University of Dammam
Qualification	Ph. D Financial Markets University: University of Aix-Marseille, France (Dec 2010) Thesis topic: Oral interventional and De facto Exchange Rate Regimes Masters Finance University: University of Aix-Marseille, France (Oct 2007) Topic: Financial Markets and Instruments Masters Commerce University: University of the Punjab, Pakistan (Mar 2000) Topic: Finance Bachelors Lahore, Pakistan University: University of the Punjab (1998) CERTIFICATIONS Associate Member of Institute of Bankers, Pakistan, (IBP) 2003 Banking
Employment History	University of Dammam (Nov. 2012 to date) State Bank of Pakistan (Sep. 2001- Nov 2012)
Experience	Central and commercial banking Teaching at undergraduate and post graduate level
Research	Ishtiaq and Girardin (2012), De facto Exchange Rate Regime, A Case of an Emerging Markets , (GREQAM, working paper). Ishtiaq and Girardin (2012), Macroeconomic News and Exchange Rate Movement, A Case of an Emerging Markets , (SBP, working paper).

Courses	Financial Management Financial Markets and Instruments Microstructure of Financial Markets
Research Interests	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Financial Markets2. Foreign Exchange Dynamics3. Exchange Rate Regimes4. Microstructure Approach to Markets
Contact Details	Cisco Ext: 32054 Email: iabajwa@uod.edu.sa