

Course Title:	Field Training
Course code:	FIN 498
Pre-required courses:	None
Course Level:	Eighth
Credit Hours:	3
Teaching Language:	Arabic
Course Description:
This course describes the actual practice the theories and methods of financial management and the most prominent contemporary scientific methods used in the financial management of the organizations. Contemporary scientific methods are used for evaluating and planning of available financial resources, and the application of financial analysis on establishments in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. The course encourages students to understand the nature of decision-making related to the planning of financial resources, and to find out what is new and contemporary in the area of financial management.
Course Aims:
This course seeks to give the student or the student the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Achieve professional and personal growth for students by providing them with theoretical knowledge and field experiences provide them with advanced technical skills for the exercise of financial business.</li> <li>• Provide students with special professional and ethical values of financial business through field practice in the various fields.</li> <li>• Developing the ability of students to apply and practice communication skills.</li> <li>• Provide students with the knowledge and experience and professional skills of teamwork.</li> <li>• Gain professional experience by providing real opportunities for the exercise of financial functions and financial roles within organizations.</li> <li>• Transfer of financial expertise of all kinds for students is easy.</li> <li>• Solve the financial problems, especially in general and administrative solution in accordance with the rules and labor laws in Saudi Arabia.</li> </ul>
Course Contents:
Contents of this course include the following topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Actual practice the theories and methods of financial management for doing business.</li> <li>• Contemporary methods used in financial management business organizations.</li> <li>• Financial resources available to the organization planning methods.</li> <li>• The reality of organizations take advantage of the financial analysis methods.</li> <li>• Identify the different financial operations of business organizations.</li> <li>• Registration of activities and actions by the Department of Finance within.</li> <li>• The nature of financial decision-business organizations.</li> </ul>	