

Vitreous Hemorrhage

What is vitreous Hemorrhage?

Its bleeding occur inside the eye leads to vision loss.

What are the causes?

Diabetic retinopathy.

Direct hits to the eye.

Vitreous detachment inside the eye.

Blockage of the eye vein

What are the symptoms?

Seeing black or red lines in vision.

Seeing black darkness leads to blocking vision.

What are the treatment?

It begins by treating the main cause of bleeding afterwards:

- Follow-up in the clinic.
- Retinal laser.
- Eye injection.
- Surgery.

What should I do after the hemorrhage occurs?

You should sit when you pray for the period specified by the doctor.

You should sleep on elevated pillow.

Avoid bending.

Avoid lifting heavy objects.

Avoid cough or sever constipation.